Wesley Family Services is a 501(c)(3) organization providing a diverse range of quality behavioral health and therapeutic support services to more than 30,000 individuals throughout Western Pennsylvania annually. Wesley Family Services is a result of Wesley Spectrum and Family Services of Western Pennsylvania merging in July of 2017, to form a larger, united organization that would be equipped to better meet the needs of children, adults, and families throughout their lifespan. Wesley Family Services operates more than 65 behavioral health and therapeutic programs, has outpatient facilities in five counties, one K-8 in Upper St. Clair Township and one high school in Whitehall Borough, 19 single-family homes for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and provides educational support services to 50 school districts throughout the region. Its mission is to empower children, adults, and families by providing transformational care.
